Executive Summary

Dedicated and dynamic digital designer. Passionate about pushing creative boundaries, I am launching my design career. Armed with a solid foundation in Digital Design and complemented with specialized courses in web development, I bring a unique interdisciplinary blend of artistic talent and technical knowledge.

Career Expectations

My career aspirations base around becoming a proficient UX professional, contributing to the ever-evolving landscape of user experience design. I am happy to immerse myself in the field, contributing with my digital design knowledge and acquired technical skills to create seamless, user-centered interfaces. My goal is to land a position, as a user experience researcher, where I can apply my creativity and attention to detail to understand user needs and improve overall product satisfaction. I am excited to work in collaboration with cross-functional groups, stay abreast of industry trends, and continually grow my skills to contribute significantly to the advancement of UX design.
